Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.' For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. [2 Timothy 1:6-7]

Have you ever heard of the saying “the truth shall set you free?” Well, I have a question, What does the word “truth” stand for in your life? In the life of a believer there is only one truth, and that is the Word of God. 2 Timothy 4:2 reads, Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage – with great patience, and careful instruction. (New International Version) If we are ever going to be truly effective in the Kingdom of God, we must learn to read, learn to live, and finally learn to speak the Word of God. Every day we wake up, we are blessed because we have been given another opportunity for God’s glory to be given in and through our lives. Just keep speaking the word and watch how God’s truth continues to set us FREE in Jesus Name!

Letter from the Editor Stay on Board!

Thank you for supporting this month's issue of The Conductor Magazine, we pray that its contents not only bless you but that you would pass it on to a friend, co-worker, or relative that could use a Word of inspiration to live on purpose each day they rise.

Today, readers, you are urged to fulfill your destiny! The Lord has already given you the power to do all He has for you.

To fulfill your destiny you must make up your mind to overcome, not avoid the obstacles life presents. [p18]

The Bible tells us to have faith in God, not in ourselves. Philippians 2:13 says, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure," [p11]

We encouraged you to keep working toward your destiny!

Sincerely,
The Editors

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. [John 3:16-17]

You can receive Jesus today!
Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth!

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name. Amen!”

It's Time to Bring Forth

However, as it is written: "What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived" the things God has prepared for those who love him [1 Corinthians 2:9]

Every born-again child of God, is born with destiny. There is a mission and a purpose that the Father wants to fulfill through our lives. God has placed ideas, desires, dreams and goals on the inside of us that drive us daily. What is that thing in you, that you cannot shake, that thing that continues to roll over and over in your spirit? If you don't precede with it, it may lie dormant for a minute but it returns and rises to the surface at another season in your life. God's given destiny is always bigger than us, that's why it takes faith to accomplish it. God downloads things in us that eyes haven't seen, ears haven't heard, neither has it entered the hearts of man the things He's going to do for and through us. The enemy fights us concerning what God has impregnated us with. When faced with something bigger than us, sometimes our confidence level drops. That's when we must take the responsibility off ourselves and put it on the one who is going to bring that thing to pass, which is God. [1 Corinthians 2:9]

The Bible tells us to have faith in God, not in ourselves. Philippians 2:13 says, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure," God is doing the work, we are the vehicle that He has chosen to birth His vision through. We did not choose God, He chose us. When traveling, there are different modes to reach your destination. You can take a bus, plane, boat, or you can drive. God uses different modes to get His will done and He doesn't have to tell us anything, we must trust Him. God will drop something in our spirit so big if we share it with our family they might give you that 'yeah right look' and later say, who does she think she is, she ain't no better than us. Doing God's will doesn't mean you think you're better than the next person, reality is you're just as uncertain about how it's going to get done yourself. You had nothing to do with it, God chose you. Sometimes we can't share things God tells us because everybody can't handle God's ideas. The carnal mind can't conceive the things of God. People will despise things they don't understand or can't relate to. John 1:46 asked, "can anything good come out of Nazareth?" What's your Nazareth? My Nazareth is Valley, Alabama. But it doesn't matter where you come from, it's all about where you're going. And if we can endure to the end, "God's Got a Blessing

And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. [Mark 11:22]

with Your Name on It.” [Mark 11:22, John 15:16, Proverbs 3:5, Romans 8:7]

The Bible says many are called but only a few get chosen. I believe that's true because everybody cannot handle the process that comes alone with being chosen. Called and chosen are two different people, just because you're called does not mean you're chosen. Being chosen is not as easy as it looks. People see the fruit of being chosen: favor, authority, cars, houses, etc., but they don't know the journey it took to produce those things. I believe being chosen makes you a target. The Word warns us, “to whom much is given much will be required.”

If you think about it, we do not expect much from a person who doesn't have much. It takes a strong determined person to birth and push out destiny, spiritually and naturally. Even during natural childbirth, the doctor and nurses may be present to assist but it's the mother's responsibility to push. [Matthew 22:14, Luke 12:48]

God is a perfect and flawless God, all seeing and all knowing. He knew who you were when He chose you. God is not intimidated by our flaws and mistakes, they are not greater than our destiny. So, stop thinking you're going to disappoint him, He knows everything and He will perfect that which concerns us. That makes the victory that

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. [2 Timothy 1:9] much sweeter. You may be thinking, why me? But why not you? With God, you are just as qualified as the next person. Where you are lacking, He will make up the difference. What's the difference between you and someone with knowledge and education? Opportunity. They got it and you didn't? But that's a quick fix for

God. God can school us without taking one class. [Jeremiah 1:5, Psalm 139:13-16, Romans 8:29]

As a mother of four, when it's time to deliver you don't want to hear the words, not yet. Hearing those words after carrying a child for 9 months can be discouraging and frustrating. You've been sick, eating habits have changed, you've gained weight, ankles swell up, you can't sleep comfortably, you are taking pills you do not want to take, and you've been to the doctor more times than she can count. After all that you are ready to have this baby. There's a total lifestyle change because of what she is carrying. And God wants us to be just as mindful of our lifestyle because of what we are carrying for Him. He has placed His treasure in earthen vessels, in the womb of our spirit, very precious cargo, greatness that's going to change the world. [Proverbs

13:12, 2 Corinthians 5:17, 2 Corinthians 4:7]

Remember Mary the mother of Jesus, a virgin who received a word from God through His angel Gabriel. Greatness and destiny came out of this woman of God, but the process was not ideal. Mary was a teenager; she was not married and the child she was carrying was not from her fiancée. The embarrassment of her pregnancy with all her circumstances was all a part of God's plan. God had a different route for Mary to bring forth His child, the Son of God. The angel greeted Mary as a woman highly favored of God & chosen among women, so are we whom God has chosen to give birth to something supernatural. It is a privilege to do anything for God but even more to be a carrier of greatness for the Kingdom of God. Mary did not volunteer to give birth to the Greatest Man who ever lived, God chose her. And He chose you to bring forth the ideas, concepts, and insights He has placed in you. That's why you don't have to try to explain nor apologize about God's hand on your life because you didn't choose yourself, God did and favor ain't fair. Receive the blessing and be determined that you and God are going to have this baby. [Proverbs 14:12, Luke 1:26-38]

When a woman becomes pregnant she has no idea what she's having or what the child looks like. All she knows is something is moving and growing on the inside of her. She loves it, has expectations for it, purchasing and preparing for it even though she's never seen it. Mary didn't completely understand God's process, she asked a question "how can this be seeing I know not a man?" And just like Mary, God wants to wean us off the thinking that we can only be blessed through a man. God told her, the Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you...." The destiny that God has placed in us is Holy, man had nothing to do with it. There is a divine assignment for us and our seed, He just needs our cooperation. Mary feared at the salutation from the angel but he said unto her, "fear not: for you have found favor with God." Eventually she said "be it unto me according to thy word" she conceived the miracle from God. And yes, we are in this world, but let's not forget who we are and whose we are. We don't solely operate like this world. Faith is the position in which our destiny will be delivered. We are a spirit being, who lives in a body, that possess a soul. Our supernatural God has supernatural destiny to perform in the earth and He must use a natural vessel to birth them, can we believe & receive & conceive and bring forth for Him. [Luke 1:26-38]

Stop Wasting Your Life

And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. ¹⁸Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him. ¹⁹So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him. ²⁰And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee? ²¹And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him. [1 Kings 19:17-21]

How does a person live successfully? It is when they base their lifestyle on God's Word. Joshua 1:8 says a prosperous lifestyle is guaranteed to those who internalize and obey God's word. Deuteronomy 8:18 states God gives us power to get, not decide what you are going to talk about getting but to produce. The source of this power comes from within the word in you .[John 4:34] God did not merely give us the power to get something from the outside but namely the power to produce from the inside. The essence of power is to produce something that comes out of the inside of you. That is why when you hear "making" jobs understand there must be a product or service. Now demand for that product or service creates (makes) the need or demand for that service to be provided. The implementation of that service is called a job. So, the reason why jobs are not being produced is, because there is no evident demand for the products we have inside. So, it is not so much as job making that is needed, than it is concepts or imagination being developed and produced. Busy activity is a job, but if it fails to serve a need, it has no purpose other than a paycheck. What's the point? Because of this warped thinking many think the purpose of work only to get a paycheck. God's purpose of work is to make a world. Thus, at the core of man's individual purpose is to make a difference, to enhance people's lives and to make the world better. In the work of the Lord there are jobs, but jobs are not what God created for you. The father created you for a work! A job is only a means to you fulfilling a work!

A work is your God calling, it is your God assignment. That is why He gave you gifts, why He gave you the Anointing, and why He gave you power to accomplish the work. [Ephesians 4:10-11] Greater is the work He called you to than the job you do. A job is simply a task, but a work is a destiny. With that in mind we should even re-think raising our children to get a job, but rather raise them to fulfill their destiny. If not they may always be at the mercy of the horrible boss. If children are raised with a proper perspective of work, it will never be just a job. Work is based on the Genesis concept in which God created the world. With that in mind, let's look at the book of John. God began with the word. This truth provides us insight that before God did something, He was something and your doing should always come out of what you are. In the beginning God was the word and whatever the word was is directly what the word did (John 1:1). Everything we see proceeded out of that word (logos) or thought. So, before God did anything He had an idea or thought. Show me somebody who is a person of ideas, who can see past the obvious thoughts and dreams and I will show you somebody with divine possibility. In the beginning was the word, but there is no word without a proceeding thought. A word is expression of thought. So, before God says a thing, He thinks about it. He declares the end from the beginning thus He processes it within Himself before He makes it evident. So, before He creates He already finished it in His mind.

Jeremiah 29:11 states, “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.” Your future does not come from the outside but the inside. God gives you this power to get wealth, but you must discover why or you may be abused. That why it is vital to take heed to God's word. For within His plan is hidden the future He has designed for you to have. The power to pro-

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [John 1:1] duce the plan is inherent in His will or command. We must understand the brevity of life, or we may stand the chance of wasting life by not embracing the gift of the present. Every moment is important if we are to fulfill destiny. So, if you don't seize the moment the enemy would have stolen your greatest asset, time. Time is God's incubator to produce the seed of His promised plan Solomon describes this as the sum of life itself. [Ecclesiastes 12:13] If this is truth, it behooves us to tap in to our given power and fulfill the work He has called us to. Birthing our destiny can be a frustrating thing, but refuse to take your hand off the plow. It is one thing to have potential, but it is another thing to reach that potential. To fulfill your destiny you must make up your mind to overcome, not avoid the obstacles life presents.

In our text, we see Elisha on the plow. Elisha, in my sanctified imagination, was thinking, I can do more than this. He was going around in circles, plowing behind a dumb beast. Have you ever been in that place? Did you ever think; I can do more than this? I believe I was created for more than this. Notice who his mentor was, Elijah, God's mighty man, who was horrified by a woman's voice, hid under a juniper tree despaired of life and wanted to die. But his tragedy was just God's instrument of passage. God moved him from the mountain where the glory was over to the juniper tree where he sustained him then to the cave where he rearranged him. Elisha, like you, is on the verge of a divine hooking. The question is now about to meet its answer. When certain people hook up in the work, they will change the world around them. David and Jonathan, Naomi and Ruth, Paul and Timothy, and Jesus and John were all examples of divine hookups in the work of the Lord.

Despite the many distractions that Elisha had to face he moved with Faith. There should be something in you that can never want to go back to business as usual. Jesus asked Peter, will you leave me? And Peter said where will I go? You must believe without knowing all the details, that God has destiny ahead of you. Elisha obviously sensed that time was of the essence and he could not miss this moment. The man of God was willing to say good-bye to his job and move forward toward the call of God on his life. His thoughts determined his actions and his actions released his destiny. Elisha is now hailed for doing double the miracles than his mentor, the great prophet Elijah. All came as result of him deciding to stop wasting his life in earthly pursuits with no eternal value. No matter what you are doing if it is not what God has planned for you it is mediocre. In this new season we must not fight the pull of destiny and move by faith to you rplace in God. Trust God, the work must continue and God is waiting on you. Stop wasting your life. We must not fight the pull of destiny and move by Faith in God's word to a place of God. Trust God and stop wasting your life!

Fellowship with God

1 John 1:1-4

Summary

Fellowship with family - Father [v3] = Fellowship with Adam

Fellowship with God edifies the people on the importance of proper fellowship with God. Due to the nature, and need of man, fellowship with God is essential for newness of life. Notice the foundation of man's fellowship with God, is it based on the word, will, and way of God? Does that man believe what God says, is he a doer of God's Word? Man must realize sections three and four come as a package; blessings and barriers. There will always be life and death set before you. When we choose to remain in fellowship with God, we receive the blessings of fellowship, such as salvation, joy, and peace. Otherwise, we choose to allow barriers to overcome our thoughts causing us to speak ungodly disassociating with God. We must keep in mind to remain in fellowship with God, this is also our fellowship with one another.
