Stay on Board!

Love thy neighbor as thyself!
It is written! [Matthew 22:39] In this season we pray the Holy Spirit helps you to forgive your neighbor the same way you forgive yourself and treat your neighbor the same way you treat yourself when you were fall. Maybe you can recall how you gently spoke to your own spirit and sought God for just the right word to encourage yourself. Make it a point to offer this same spirit of gentleness, encouragement, and forgiveness to your neighbor.

As you praise the Lord today for his goodness, maybe include a prayer of restored joy for your neighbor! He will certainly restore your joy too!

Write to us! Tell us what love thy neighbor means to you!

Can You Tell Time?

“You know how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why do you not analyze this present time?” Luke 12:54-56

When growing up, I believe we learned to tell time while in the second or third grade. Reading the clock is one of those things you just don't forget, no matter how much time has passed. Just as we can tell time in the natural, as Christians, we should also be able to tell time in the spirit. There are a lot of things happening in our communities and across the nations today. And some of them seem unfair, but if we are in tuned with the word/spirit we would not be struck with amazement. According to the bible there are certain things that must happen in the last days and we cannot change them. But we, somehow, fail to factor in these perilous events happening to us. For some strange reason we only think they will happen to someone else; someone across town or across the country, but not in our house. Jesus is coming soon his appearing is closer than we think. People have been saying it for years, but I believe the day is quickly approaching. Telling time is crucial in this season and I see people who are acting as though we are going to be here forever. Scripture tells us that we are strangers passing through; this is only a temporary stay. And we need to know that our departure/rapture is around the corner. Folks have gotten too comfortable here, fallen for the trick and forgotten our life is not our own. We are here with a purpose and do not have forever to fulfill it. [Jeremiah 29:11, Deuteronomy 8:18, Ephesians 2:10]

In Luke 12:54-56 it lets us know that Jesus had a problem with those who could discern the weather and it come to pass but could not discern the time we're in. He said, “You know how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why do you not analyze this present time?” Hypocrites is what He called them. 2 Timothy 3:1-9 gives us some good indicators of how we can discern the times “... in the last days difficult times will come. For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God, holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power. Avoid such men as these. For among them are those who enter into households and captivate weak women weighed down with sins, led on by various impulses....men also oppose the truth, men of depraved mind, rejected in regard to the faith.” If we take heed to these verses we cannot misinterpret the time.

Have you ever been doing something and lost track of the time? Unbeknownst, became caught in a zone? As time is drawing near, this is one of Satan’s strategies. He wants us to get caught up in non-sense and loose track of time. Our adversary, the devil, is using every distraction he can. Those things that keep us from giving our full attention to Christ are the things he’s using to get us off track. Our children, jobs, money or the lack thereof, relationships, offense, attacks against our bodies are all distractions. Revelation 12:12 tell us he has come down having great wrath knowing his time is short. Satan has turned up the heat against us because he knows how to tell time. He was thrown out of heaven and wants to take as many of us down with him as possible.

He is mad. It is so critical that we remain steadfast and unmovable. Trying our best to stay focused and determined to keep it moving forward with and for the Lord.

Sometimes it is hard to tell time when things are blocking your view. That’s the time to get help. Thank God for our helper, the Holy Spirit, our Luke 21:25-28 “.....look up and lift up our heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

allos parakletos. Along with the Holy Spirit, Jesus gave us some natural people to help us. Ephesians 4:8-14 says “Jesus gave gifts to men. Some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ...that we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.” In these last days no one has to be deceived or a lone ranger, it’s time to grow up because we cannot do God’s will alone. The Father has made provision and put leaders in place for us to learn from and to be examples before us. If you cannot tell time follow some one who can.

Have you ever started a project or an assignment and at the beginning you were working at a steady pace with no sense of urgency, but the closer the deadline approaches your momentum picks up. This is how we should be concerning the Lord’s work, moving with a sense of urgency. Hebrews 10:25 tell us we should encourage one another all the more as you see the day drawing near. We should be helping and encouraging each other to finish their assignment because we are one body. The same approval we desire from our superior when we complete our assignment at the job, we should be even the more desiring the approval of the Father. To hear Him say, “Well done thy good and faithful servant...” Hebrews 4:1 tells us to fear coming up short of God’s promise. Coming up short is not going to fly with the boss, and it’s not going to fly with

God either. It seems as though there is no fear of not finishing our heavenly assignment. It is amazing how people fear man more than God. The bible tells us in everything we do; we should do it as unto the Lord, natural and spiritual. Do not fear those who kill the body...but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. (Matthew 10:28, Ephesians 6:5-8)

I know we are free moral agents and we think we can do what we want to do and it be accepted but unless you are a person who likes to be wasteful I don't recommend that route. 1 Corinthians 3:10-15 says Jesus is the foundation in which we should build everything and be careful how we build upon Him. We can't and won't use just anything to build upon Jesus. Just because people accept our work, does not mean God accepts it. That's why it is called an offering; offers can be accepted or rejected. One day our works will be tried whether it is of gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay or straw. The works that remains will receive a reward but if not it will be burned.

People of God, let's open our eyes and put the pedal to the metal concerning the Father's business. We know what time it is and what we have got to do. Luke 21:25-28 ".....men fainting from fear and the expectation of the things which are coming upon the world...But when these things begin to take place look up and lift up our heads, because your redemption is drawing near." In all this darkness, I tell you what time it is, it's time for the church to arise and shine. In Jesus Name.

Happy New Year

Conductor WHY CAN'T WE BE FRIENDS?

For the body is not one member, but many. [1 Corinthians 12:14]

AS we embark on another year, the church is filled with excitement and celebration in anticipation for all the great things the Lord has promised to do! We here at Crossroads believe that 2015 will be marked as the year when the Winds of Change will blow the favor of God into the lives of His people like never before. Not just in this local assembly, but the Body of Christ universally will experience the four winds of God blowing them into divine destiny, for those who may need a brief reminder of the veracity of the Breadth of God. One epic account of the wind of God blowing was in the story of Moses as he led the childhood of Israel out of Egypt through the Red Sea. The bible says, "Moses stretched out his hand...and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land. [Exodus 14:21] That Heavenly Wind is blowing again to bring God's people out of and into his promises. Amen! The one barrier I see challenging such a move of God is the clandestine disunity in the Body of Christ. If the Children of Israel were not in one accord, it would have been impossible for them to make the Exodus out of bondage. It is now the time to stop acting like we have fellowship issues in God's church. Sunday is still the most segregated day of the week. I cannot remain silent on the subject any longer, this pink elephant is getting on my last pink nerve. We as people of all backgrounds can get together over sports, work, and to a degree – politics but not Jesus? People either say, "those people are too emotional over Jesus, or too dead over Jesus," it just seems everybody has their own prejudice as to why we can't be friends, despite the fact we all live in the same house. [1 Corinthians 12:14]

We Shall Overcome

Please don't misunderstand me, this is not a plea for social justice or racial equality. I am not a civil rights activist or a religious zealot. This is simply one believer's cry for unity, no more no less. A cry for unity within the bonds of Christ, not a compromise of anyone's Christian disciplines and or denominational absolutes. There was a song we sang growing up in the Baptist Church, "Blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." We have preached a many of sermons on our eternal fellowship with God; this is surely the basis of our new beginning and blessings, but it can also pose a barrier if not approached with proper balance. One of the symbols of our salvation is the cross of Christ. Notice how it was constructed to go in two directions, vertical as well as horizontal. Most Christians do well with their vertical relationship with God, but it is in the area of the horizontal relationship with other Christians they struggle. Jesus did say, love thy neighbor as yourself. [Matthew 22:39] Well, the question may be asked again in this setting, who is my neighbor? Jesus does answer this question with a response I felt was most consistent with the text found in Matthew 12:50. Anyone who does the will of my father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother! The fact that we are speaking in reference to the Body of Christ it seems more appropriate to cast the light on the integrity of brotherhood and sisterhood. The only way to accomplish this is by faith. Whenever we as Christians face overwhelming impossibilities, we always overcome them by faith in God. [1John 5:4] Faith is our victory and that same faith we used to cure cancer and stop wars. It is that same faith that can make us one in Christ. in a neighborly manner.

Jesus did say, love thy neighbor as yourself. Matthew 22:39

The bond of Fellowship is the key component to the Gospel being most effective. It is designed to unite, bridge gaps, and destroy barriers. The Gospel reaches its apex when barriers amongst the body are non-existent. Jesus was well aware of this, which is why he prayed so vehemently in John 17 for unity. Jesus knew a house divided against itself cannot stand. [Matthew 12:25] The blessing of God is going to be directly related to us unifying in this season. We must kick satan and his spirits of division out from amongst God's church. The Lord has richly prepared blessings for each of us in this new season, therefore we must release the baggage and barriers that have separated us in the past if we are to receive them. Barriers such as racial, cultural, religious or denominational, socio-economic and all other barriers that keep the world from seeing the fullness of the power of God in his church. This year, as a member of the world church of Jesus Christ, do not allow anything to separate us from the love of God. It is certain that we want to see God's glory shine through his church here on earth.

I want you to know how hard I am contending for you and for those at

Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally. ²My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ. [Colossians 2:1-2]

The Irreducible

Minimum

Humility! That is the key if we are to experience that love that binds us together as one. The devil is trying to use the fact that we all may not be the same age, the same race, of the same backgrounds, the same gender the same denomination or of the same socio-economic background to keep us divided. But what he forgot is we all have the same salvation, born again of the same spirit. We read the same Holy Scriptures and provide the same service and that is to "win the lost." Oh yes, we all have the same Saviour, and his name is Jesus! Hallelujah to the Lamb. Am I talking right? In light of this, all our excuses for not being friends are just cop outs to protect one group's comfort and security. If the gospel unites and makes the declaration that we are all one, why are we allowing these weak satanic barriers to keep us from coming together?

An Eye Opening Experience

If we want to show the mystery of the gospel and the fullness of God [v2] we must find at least one reason to be friends. The church must get a revelation that we are not the enemies of one another, but it is satan who is the enemy. [Ephesians 6:12] We need to redirect all this negative energy against our brothers and sisters that divide us toward the forces of hell and then we will be unstoppable in this season. Anything that weighs us down, leave it and let God tie up the loose ends! Get ready church, just like our forefathers in the book of acts, we unite in fellowship having all things in common we are going to see exponential growth! [Acts 2:42-47] to taste and see the goodness of the Lord! The Lord is spreading the table for his people in this coming year. He is supplying more than your needs according to his riches and glory! The Lord is revealing himself as “El Shaddi” the God of more than enough and not only in provisional blessings but also in healings, miracles, and spiritual manifestations! God is showing himself strong to those who have waited upon him to perform his word. This is the promise of church that will walk in unity, for there will I command the blessing [Psalm 133]

Summary

Who do men say that "I am?" The Christ, the Son of the Living God. It's Jesus, the King of Kings! Here He comes, riding on a young colt preceded by its mother. Both the colt and mother will bear the clothes of the King's disciples. Notice on the path below their feet are garments, which have been spread by the multitude, along with branches cut from trees to garnish the way. The people all praise the King, crying Hosanna in the highest! Who is this you say? This is King Jesus, our answer to everything!
